FACULTY OF LAW
50th Anniversary

HONORARY LL.B. CONVOCATION

THE FACULTY OF LAW at the University of British Columbia was founded in 1945. Before that date anyone wishing to obtain a legal education in this province was obliged to enrol in a law school outside British Columbia or to take articles within the province and attend classes at the Vancouver or Victoria Law Schools, which were administered by the Law Society of British Columbia. On the occasion of the Law Faculty's 50th Anniversary it was decided that the University of British Columbia would honour those members of the legal profession who had not had the opportunity of attending a Law School or whose careers had been interrupted by the Second World War by conferring upon them Honorary Bachelor of Laws degrees.

In this way the University of British Columbia recognizes their contribution not merely to their profession but to the well-being of the province as a whole.
