Graduation marks an important stage in every student's life. It's a time to stop and reflect, to look back at what you've achieved—the numerous courses and programs you've taken, the countless tests and examinations you've endured, the triumphs (and sometimes the disappointments) that you have doubtless experienced in the lecture room or the lab. It's a time also to think about the non-academic side of life at UBC: the friends you've made, the pains or pleasures of living in dorms, the hours spent debating politics or philosophy or football. Above all, graduation is a time to take stock of what you've learned, and to recognize a simple but significant truth: that over the past four or five years you have acquired the skills, knowledge, and training that will enable you to participate fully in society.

Now that you have reached that point, you have new decisions to make. For graduation also marks the moment of transition from apprenticeship into readiness, from learning into action; the moment at which you must contemplate your future and choose the direction you want to take. Some new graduates, such as those in professional schools like medicine or law, have already made their choice; others have yet to arrive at a decision.

Whatever direction you eventually choose, be confident that your UBC education will have developed in you the qualities needed to help you achieve your goals—the knowledge that is the foundation of your discipline, the capacity for understanding that comes with critical thinking, and the open mind that accompanies intellectual curiosity and imagination. As long as you build on those fundamental qualities, you will continue to enjoy the kind of success that we celebrate today with your graduation.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

We live in a world short on ritual and ceremony. So it is all the more significant that we are here to celebrate together today. Only by marking the passage from one era of our lives into another are we able to say: That part of my life has ended; this part of my life has just begun.

Graduation is the most important event in the academic year. The ceremony is a public acknowledgement of your successful completion of a long and rigorous preparation. It brings all of us together, regardless of discipline, to celebrate and to remind us of our link to the centuries-old traditions of teaching and learning. It is an opportunity to give voice to the values we share—of integrity, excellence, the thirst for knowledge and the necessity of service. And it is a signal to the world that you are ready for new responsibilities, new and more complex challenges and a new place in society.

We spend much of our early lives wondering when we'll get to that place, when we'll finally get to be adults. Over time we realize adulthood is not something someone else confers upon us, any more than a university degree is. It is something we choose for ourselves ... and the day is here.

Four or five or maybe 15 years ago, you chose to be here today, and today is the culmination of the thousands of choices you have made since. To arrive at this moment in time, you had to believe you could do something you had never done before, and you discovered that the ability to do a thing—to do anything—lies within your choice.

You have chosen to number yourself among the more than 250,000 artists, educators and entrepreneurs, parliamentarians and opera singers, architects, doctors and journalists who call UBC their alma mater. You have acquired critical tools and professional skills, the

Your degree signifies a great accomplishment, the completion of a lengthy and demanding academic program. Now you are ready to move on to the next challenge, whether that lies in further academic studies or in a particular profession. As a graduate of UBC, you have acquired skills, insights, and ideals that will serve you well in the future. You have an understanding of your responsibilities as a citizen of society. I encourage you to become involved, and to offer your ideas and solutions with the confidence that they will be heard and respected.

No matter what your choice of career or profession, you will encounter challenges that call on the expertise and understanding you have developed as a student at UBC. Society will look to you to help eradicate the injustice and poverty suffered by so many around the world. It will depend upon you for solutions to the social, economic, and environmental issues that afflict us all. Your critical and analytical abilities will also come into play as you begin to exercise the responsibilities of global citizenship and move into leadership roles.

I have the utmost confidence that you will succeed, and that wherever you find yourself you will contribute to UBC's reputation as a great university. My warmest good wishes go with you!

Sarah Morgan-Silvester

ability to develop and communicate your ideas and an understanding of other cultures that will enable you to do more of what has not yet been done, to seek solutions, to lead the way.

The timing of this rite of passage happens to coincide with an historic moment in time for our neighbours south of the border, a moment characterized by the refrain: Yes, we can. Coupled with UBC's own motto, it's a powerful combination: It's up to you. You can. Hope. Optimism. Freedom. Change. Whatever you dream, choose it. It's yours.

Today is the day—the day you had in mind each time you slogged from B-Lot to Buchanan; traded social time for the study hall; completed a project, an exam or a course; gave your time in service; held out your hand to another student who was struggling with their freshman year, loneliness, or the workload; each time you formed a friendship that will last your life long.

Today you can say, That part of my life has ended; this next adventure has just begun. I hope you will always look back on your time at UBC with pleasure, and that one of the choices you make after today will be to stay in touch. You will always be welcome here, and we look forward to learning about your personal and professional achievements as you build on the strong foundation provided by your UBC degree.

On behalf of the faculty and staff at UBC Vancouver, I offer my warmest congratulations to the graduating class of 2008!

Stephen J. Toope
President and Vice-Chancellor

THE GATES

MUSQUEAM WELCOME

On behalf of the Musqueam Indian Band, the Musqueam Band Council welcomes the University of British Columbia's new Chancellor Sarah Morgan-Silvester, the new graduates, their families and friends to the 2008 Annual Fall Congregation.

We are pleased to honour the graduates and extend our congratulations to each and every one of you. We are especially pleased to extend our welcome and congratulations to the increasing number of First Nations students who visit the university, and our traditional lands, for their education.

The accomplishments and contributions of each individual student build the foundation for their future as well as the future of the university and the larger community. These individual accomplishments reflect the talent and diversity among you. Today, the feeling of pride and accomplishment to accompany the completion of your course of study will add to each student's confidence in moving on to the next endeavour.

The University of British Columbia is situated within the heart of Musqueam Traditional Territory. These lands have always been a place for learning. In previous centuries, what is now the UBC campus was a centre for learning for Musqueam youth, who were instructed in culture, history, and tradition, and who in turn shared their knowledge with a new generation. Belief, knowledge, ritual, technological practices, were all handed down here from generation to generation – just as they are today to students from diverse communities and backgrounds.

Musqueam thanks the University of British Columbia and President Stephen Toope for continuing to recognize these lands and the tradition of learning associated with them as an integral part of the history and well being of the Musqueam community. We also thank UBC for continuing to seek a partnership with Musqueam as co-host for special initiatives and ceremonies.

We are pleased that our lands continue to be a place for learning and sharing. We are supportive of the university's many programs and initiatives to form partnerships with the Musqueam and other First Nations communities. Education brings us all together, and each of the students convocating today is an inspiration to us all. It is our hope that after graduation you will continue contributing to the university, to our communities, to the well being of society and in doing so you will bring about positive change.

Congratulations to all University of British Columbia 2008 Graduates. We wish you further success for your future.

DESCRIPTION OF PRESIDENT'S STOLE

"The Salish people are well known for being beautiful weavers along the west coast. Their weavings were used for clothing, sitting mats, and gifts. They also indicate wealth; the more blankets and gifts you gave away shows everyone your wealth.

I decided to design and weave the stole for the sole purpose in sharing the importance and wealth of the Salish people here at Musqueam. It's now a gift for the President and the students at UBC to share with each other. I hope it also relays the significance of sharing amongst each other.

The white sheep wool shows the weaving techniques still used today and the black material shows the salish form lines.

My name is Chrystal Sparrow and I come from the Musqueam Band. I'm a contemporary salish artist. My art mediums are; wood carvings, prints, jewellery, clothing and weavings. I'm working on many art pieces for 2010 at the present time."

CONGREGATION OR CONVOCATION?

People often ask why UBC calls its graduation ceremonies "Congregation". There are no records to say why this term was originally adopted but it has been used by UBC since its first graduation ceremonies in 1916 and is believed to originate from its use in English institutions such as Oxford and Cambridge. According to Wikipedia, "a congregation is an assembly of people for a given purpose; with respect to a university, it is a formal meeting of senior members of the University. Examples include the Regent House in the University of Cambridge and the House of Congregation and the Ancient House of Congregation in the University of Oxford. Stemming from this tradition, in some universities a graduation ceremony is known as a congregation, even if the ceremony is not a meeting of the university's governing body in the traditional sense."

For whatever reason, UBC adopted this term for its graduation ceremonies in 1916 and has used it ever since when inviting faculty, students and guests to the Annual and more recently the Spring and Fall graduation ceremonies. UBC is unique amongst Canadian institutions in that it appears to be the only institution that still uses this term.

The term 'Convocation' at UBC is more often used to describe a group of people – defined by the University Act – including the Chancellor, President, members of the Senate, all faculty members and all graduates of the University. The Convocation, through the Chancellor who serves as its chair, confers degrees, including honorary degrees, and awards diplomas and certificates of proficiency.

In Fall 2007, UBC Vancouver Senate reconfirmed its preference to maintain the tradition of using the term 'Congregation' for its graduation ceremonies. In Spring 2008, the UBC Okanagan Senate passed a motion that "Convocation be adopted as the name for meetings of the UBC convocation held at UBC Okanagan for the purposes of conferring degrees, effective June 2008."

Did you know....

- UBC's first Congregation ceremony took place on May 4, 1916 in the Hotel Vancouver ballroom. There were 41 graduates.
- UBC's first graduate degrees were conferred in 1919. The first degrees in Agriculture were conferred in 1921 and the first Bachelor of Applied Science in Nursing and Forestry degrees were awarded at the eighth Congregation in 1923.
- Every year since 1979, the graduating class has planted a tree on campus.
- The first Congregation ceremony on the present day campus was held in 1927.

THE UNIVERSITY MACE

The University Mace is a symbol of the authority of the Chancellor. It is displayed on ceremonial occasions, most notably during the congregation ceremonies but also during the Installation of a President or Chancellor.

In the fall of 1957, the University commissioned Haida carver Bill Reid to undertake the project. Owing to Reid's heavy workload, he suggested that George Norris be asked to help design and carve the Mace. The planning of the Mace took some time and a final design was not approved until 1959.

Norris carved the Mace from a block of yew and it included a stylized thunderbird on the thick upper portion. The Mace also featured the use of copper that was prominent in Northwest Coast native art. This copper trimming was designed and prepared by Bill Reid. Norris completed the Mace in 1959 and it was first used at the Fall Congregation where the Director of Ceremonies, Malcolm McGregor, carried it for the first time.

Today the Mace is carried by the 'Macebearer' who leads the Platform Party, which includes the Chancellor, the President, and other dignitaries, onto the stage for the Congregation ceremonies.

O CANADA

Our home and native land!
True patriot love in all thy sons command.

With glowing hearts we see thee rise,
The True North strong and free!

From far and wide,
O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.

God keep our land glorious and free!
O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.

O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.

Terre de nos aïeux,
Ton front est ceint de fleurons glorieux!

Car ton bras sait porter l'épée,
Il sait porter la croix!

Ton histoire est une épopée
Des plus brillants exploits.

Et ta valeur, de foi trempée,
Protégera nos foyers et nos droits.

Protégera nos foyers et nos droits..

UBC'S IMPORTANT HISTORICAL MOMENTS

The following list reflects 22 important historical moments in UBC's history:

1908

- Provincial legislature passes a new "University Act" establishing The University of British Columbia. It provides for a Chancellor, a Convocation, a President, and a Board of Governors to manage the university's administration, property and business affairs, and a Senate to administer academic matters.

1910

- After a province-wide survey, Point Grey is selected as the site of UBC's new campus.

1913

- Dr. Frank Fairchild Wesbrook appointed first President of UBC.

1915

- The University of British Columbia opens in temporary headquarters at the former MUCBC facilities (nicknamed the "Fairview Shacks" after the surrounding neighbourhood) adjacent to Vancouver General Hospital. There are three faculties: Arts and Science, Applied Science and Agriculture. Student enrolment in September is 379 and total number of full- and part-time faculty is 34.

1922

- Tired of over-crowded conditions and inadequate facilities, UBC students launch a campaign known as "Build the University" to resume construction at the Point Grey campus. With 56,000 names on a petition for the government, 1,200 students with floats, bands and banners march through the streets of downtown Vancouver to the Point Grey campus. This pilgrimage became known as the "Great Trek," as it successfully convinced the Government of BC to resume work on the Point Grey site. The "Great Trek" represents one of the greatest efforts of an undergraduate student body in support of its university and still reflects the spirit and pride of UBC students.

- Dr. Michael Smith receives the Nobel Prize.

SUSTAINABILITY PLEDGE

Imagine all UBC graduating students making a collective statement of commitment to improving the sustainability of our communities.

UBC students have joined university and college graduates across North America in a growing movement to redefine the purpose of education. Students are committing to use their knowledge wisely to create positive change in the world.

Through the UBC Sustainability Pledge, you have the opportunity to commit to working toward a career and lifestyle with a conscience. The Pledge also links you to resources that will help you incorporate social, ecological, and economic aspects of sustainability into your professional and personal life.

The Pledge is more than just a personal commitment. Our collective voice sends a strong message to the university and the greater community that UBC students care about sustainability.

Take a graduating step to creating a more sustainable society, sign now at: www.sustain.ubc.ca/sustainable_u.

This program was proposed and is managed by students, and is supported by the Office of Student Development and the Campus Sustainability Office.

"I pledge to explore and take into account the social and ecological consequences of my decisions. Furthermore, I pledge to use the knowledge I gain while at UBC to improve the sustainability of the communities in which I live, learn, and work."

A SINCERE "THANK YOU" TO GRADS

UBC strives to give students access to the best faculty, dynamic and topical programs of study, the latest resources and technology, and top-notch services and assistance.

Many of these items are made available through the generosity of alumni and friends of the university. While basic support for university operations comes from tuition fees and the government, donors are key partners in helping UBC explore and provide new opportunities for students.

We are proud to have our alumni's strong support. This tradition of alumni support begins with our graduating students. UBC's Class Act initiative helps students to work together to fundraise for a special parting gift from their graduating class to their Faculty or School. In past years, these gifts have included computer equipment, furniture for student social spaces, speaker endowments and scholarships.

The university wishes to express its appreciation to this year's Class Act participants, and to others who have demonstrated their commitment to the ideals of the university. Your generosity contributes immeasurably to the vitality and strength of UBC.

For further information about gifts to UBC, please contact the Development Office at 604-822-8900, or visit our website www.supporting.ubc.ca.
